"BRAIN TRUST" LEADER QUIT RAILROAD JOB

PROFESSOR MOLEY, ROOSEVELT AIDE, FOUND WORK TOO HARD

BEREA, O., (UP)—One day of work as a section hand convinced Prof. Raymond Moley, of Roosevelt "brain trust" fame, that his future was in brains, rather than brawn.

The story of how young Moley, long before he became a professor of note, decided he must "get some first hand experience with the problems of the workingman," was told here by his mother, Mrs. Agnes Fairchild Moley, 79.

Moley got a job on the section, the foreman of the crew being a friend of the family, Mrs. Moley relates. It was a hot day, and the sun's rays struck fire from the glistening steel rails.

The foreman mopped his face with a red bandanna. "Heave! heave, ho!" he chanted as the crew strained to lift a steel rail.

Every few minutes the men stopped for breath, then back to the job again.

Young Moley stuck it out through about three breathing spells, then he quietly walked to the side of the right of way and stretched out in the shade of a tree. There he remained until nightfall, when he rode back to town on the handcar and foreman further excursions into the realm of the workingman.

"I thought then, and I still think, he was smart when he dropped that rail and started using his head rather than his brawn," said Mother Moley.

"You know, though, he was scared to death recently when he came home to address the graduating class of the Olmstead Falls high school. He told me later that he looked at the gathering of two or three hundred persons and saw at least six men through whose windows he had thrown baseballs years ago."

STATE RESTORES HOME VILLAGE OF LINCOLN

PETERSBURG, Ill., (UP)—Dedication of Abraham Lincoln's home town, the village of New Salem, will take place some time this month. Inclement weather has hindered the restoration of the cabins, delaying dedication plans. It originally was planned to hold the dedication May 7 because that was the 100th anniversary of Lincoln's commission as post master of New Salem. Thirteen cabins are being restored. Oak logs have been glazed, notched and preserved.

Efforts are being made to secure furniture and articles that were owned by residents of the pioneer village, or that belonged to the 1830 period.

Interiors of the stores and shops, including counters, shelves, cracker barrels, ginger snap kegs, bolts of calico and old fashioned candy jars, will be replicas of those of Lincoln's time.

Plans are under way to have the United States Postoffice department designate New Salem as a post office on the day of dedication and to issue a memorial stamp for the occasion.

If official approval is given for reopening the old post office, an impersonation of Lincoln distributing mail is planned.

FILMS URGED FOR LAW STUDY

NORMAN, Okla., (UP)—Law students would learn their profession by discarding books and lecture methods in favor of motion pictures, under a new plan of instruction proposed by Floyd A. Wright, professor of law at the University of Oklahoma.

Killings, embezzlements, accidents, grounds for divorce suits and other potential lawsuit material would be thrown before the students in plain sight. Each would piece together his own set of facts from observation.

"Through use of the film the student would be taken into the various courts . . . to witness the procedure, trial argument of counsel and other matters," wrote Wright in an article explaining his plan.

"He would listen to judges rule upon points of evidence and law, charge juries and pronounce decisions."

Cost of making the various would be the only present obstacle to realization of the scheme. Wright believes the cost would not be prohibitive even now in some schools.

Tuxis C. E., 6:30. Out-of-doors meeting at the Manse.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Gust E. Carlson, minister.

We have the opportunity, daily, whether to obey man or God. When the early Christians were severely persecuted and strictly charged not to speak the doctrines of God, their reply was, "We ought to obey God rather than men," and they did. We teach that a Christian should obey God rather than man, whenever God and man's commands are conflicting, at the Church on the corner of Spring Ave. and Poplar Sts.

Sunday school and morning worship from 9:30 to 11:30. Junior worship in connection with the morning worship period. Message, "The Church Covenant" by the pastor. Anthem, "Blessed is the Nation" by Lorenz.

At the close of the worship the hand of fellowship will be extended and then we will sit together around the Lord's table in communion.

B. Y. P. U.'s at the 6:30 hour.

Evening worship at 7:30. Message, "The New Birth." Anthem, "O, Come, Let Us Sing," by Thomas. Come and join in the half-hour praise service.

Choir rehearsal Thursday evening at 7 o'clock and mid-week prayer service at 8 o'clock.

Our Daily Vacation Bible School will open Monday morning, July 10 at 8 o'clock promptly. Although this school is sponsored by the Baptist Church any boy or girl over 4 and under 17 are cordially invited to attend. Registration day will be Friday, July 7, from 3 to 5 in the afternoon.

Wednesday Evening Service third Wednesday of the month.

Reading room open Wednesday from 2 to 4 p. m.

"God" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, July 2.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the Lord your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the Lord your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed. And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the Lord your God, and none else." (Joel 2: 23, 24, 25).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Allness is the measure of the infinite, and nothing less can express God" (p. 339).

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

MOVIES

AT THE GRANADA

"The Keyhole," a picture of romance and gay adventure, unique in plot and glamorous in setting, in which the two popular Warner-Bros. stars, Kay Francis and George Brent appear together for the first time, opens at the Granada Theatre Sunday.

The screen play by Robert Presnell is based on Alice D. Miller's story "Adventures," and is everything that the original title implies. The theme treats of a beautiful young dancer who marries an elderly man of great wealth and social prominence who is extremely jealous of his young wife and engages a private detective to watch her.

Dogged by the spy and fleeing from a blackmailer, the heroine becomes involved in some startling situations that lead to strange entanglements. The story carries the spectator from the palaces of New York to the coastwise liners to Havana. Most of the scenes take place on shipboard and in the Cuban capital. There are many beautiful scenes at sea and in the tropical atmosphere of the southern island.

Harmonizers 4-H Club Met On Thursday

The Harmonizers 4-H club met Thursday, June 29, at the home of Marjorie Black. The next meeting will be three weeks from the day of the meeting, a picnic at the home of Mary June Etter. The county 4-H club picnic was discussed. It is to be held July 13.
